

ARLIS/NA MOQ PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

I. MICHELLE GAUTHIER TRAVEL AWARD ($1000)

Purpose: to promote professional development by supporting travel to the ARLIS/NA Annual Conference.

Eligibility:

- Applicant must be a member of ARLIS/NA and ARLIS/NA MOQ to attend the conference.
- Applicant must be unable to receive full institutional funding for travel to the conference.
- Preference is given to applicants who are first-time attendees and/or who are involved in the conference program, i.e. presenting a paper, serving as moderator or recorder of a session, serving on an ARLIS/NA committee, etc.
- The award is open to student members.
- The award may not be given in the same year to the winner of an ARLIS/NA Travel Award.
- The recipient must prepare a short report which will be published in MOQDOC.

To Apply: Please send a resume and a letter of intention by e-mail, detailing your library experience, your ARLIS experience, and any other information that you feel is relevant to assess your needs.

Criteria that will be evaluated by the Professional development committee :

- Demonstrated needs
- Previous participation in the ARLIS/NA conference
- Contribution to the conference
- Contribution to ARLIS/NA or ARLIS/NA/MOQ
- Benefits for ARLIS/NA and/or ARLIS/NA/MOQ
- Previous obtaining of a travel grant

To apply, or for more information please contact:

Hélène Brousseau

ARLIS/NA MOQ Professional Development Awards Committee
helenebrousseau@gmail.com

Committee members:

Hélène Brousseau (Artex)
Simon Barry (National Theatre School)
Danielle Léger (Bibliothèque nationale du Québec, Montréal)